

OVERVIEW

The MAP 50 this month has 11 new entries. The MAPsignals data-generated list starts by identifying stocks that can be easily traded by Big Money investors. There are usually about 1600 stocks that make up that list. We gather the best quality stocks that appeared on our MAP 20 report most frequently in the past 6 months. Outlier stocks tend to see recurring big money. We update this automated report each month near the 15th. New entries this month are:

HOW TO USE THE MAPSIGNALS 50

People come to us for our signals. We're in the information business. We have information you can't get anywhere else. But sometimes a lot of information can seem overwhelming. Don't worry. We're going to walk you through how to use this report. It's a collection of our most powerful signals.

Let's invest a minute to break each column down- it'll be crystal clear in no-time:

MOVED FROM MARCH'S 50	MARCH'S 50 RANK
▲ 4	5
▲ 1	2
▲ 1	4

MOVED FROM MONTH PRIOR:
This just tells us if the stock moved up or down in rank on the 50 list from last month.

MONTH PRIOR RANK: This just tells us where it was on the list last month. Here we see in April GOOGL moved up 4 places from 5th in March to #1. It's like the Billboards.

MAPSIGNALS GRADES

This section off to the right of the table can seem confusing but these are powerful bits of information. It's part of what makes MAPsignals so strong at what we do. Let's go over each so you have a clear understanding of what they are and how they can help you. Just like in school, you can get an overall "GPA" which breaks down into reading/writing and math for example. MAPSCORE is the GPA. Technicals are like math and science. Fundamentals are like physical fitness and reading/writing comprehension. Stocks need to be well rounded too!

MAPSCORE	TECHNICAL	FUNDAMENTAL	VALUE METER
74.1	67.6%	83.3%	●
72.4	67.6%	79.2%	●
58.6	50.0%	70.8%	●

MAPSCORE: The aggregate score of how strong a stock is. Combining everything we look at – think of it as the overall grade. It's a quick way to see a stock's strength.

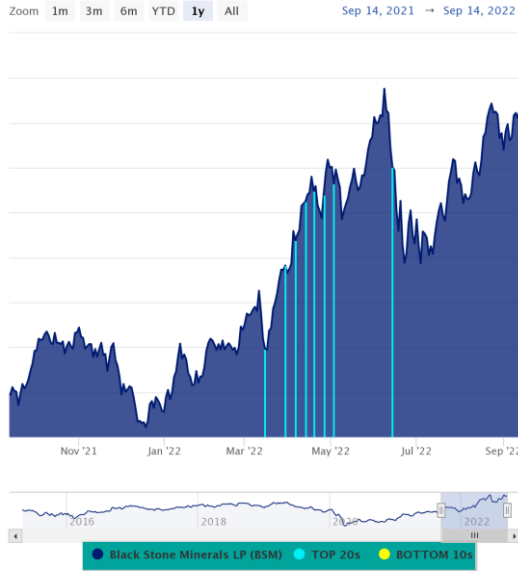

TECHNICAL: We call it "Mechanics." This is how a stock is trading. Baked in here are things like buy/sell pressure, highs, lows, and volatility. It's our view of stock technicals.

FUNDAMENTAL: We call it "Health", or: how healthy a stock is. This has stuff like sales and earnings growth, profits, and debt. It's our view of balance sheet and future prospects.

VALUE METER: This is new. Is it a good time to buy this stock? A full black circle means value. A white circle means it might be better to wait for a pullback. Buying a stock with strong technicals and weak fundamentals may take longer to show performance. Here we try to help you decide on timing.
